Volunteer Spotlight: Sir Oliver Smith or "Smitty"

By Kitty Massey

On Tuesdays and Wednesdays and many other days, Smitty can be found sprucing our grounds, staffing our library and assisting our members. From watering plants to feeding birds; from picture hanging to general repairs; from setting up tables to bringing food, Smitty is always willing to give a hand. He's also our naturalist gardener, groundskeeper, and landscaper, with no budget to back him up.

To beautify our grounds and save water, Smitty gifted and created a monarch and pollinator garden at the entrance driveway for the library. Red salvia greggii, yellow skeleton-leaf golden eye, purple Russian sage, white lantana and datura made a pretty array of color when it bloomed.

You may have noticed the need to landscape the corner of Blanco Road and Melissa, next to the bus stop in front of the Dwyer Center. Smitty has applied for a grant to add a monarch & pollinator garden along Blanco Road, featuring Mexican bush sage, midnight sage, Gregg's blue mist and bluebonnet seedlings. As soon as the money arrives, he'll be redesigning and planting his newest creation.

Smitty grew up in sunny Southern California where his father sold tracts of land to would-be avocado farmers.

Graduating from Long Beach State College, he began his teaching career in 1963 at Edison High School, one block from Huntington Beach, just as the Beach Boys released their record shattering album, Surfer Girl. While teenagers across the nation and around the world worshipped the California surfer mystique, there was young, easy going Smitty at the heart of it! For 31 years he taught English composition to cooperative freshman who knew a phone call home meant no surfboard for the weekend. After school, as his students caught the waves, Smitty engaged in the other famous California pastime: buying and flipping houses. He graded papers on the hour-long bus ride home; then he worked on his latest investment property. Over the years, he purchased, repaired, redesigned and landscaped eight houses. It was a great lifestyle until 1995, his 32nd year at Edison. For the first time, teaching turned out to be uncharacteristically difficult. Smitty knew it was time to retire and move to a cheaper locale.

Happiness became California in his rear-view mirror. Smitty and his partner, Ken Wrider, from Pasadena, Texas, started life anew in San Antonio—the land of sweltering summers and withering drought. Settling into the Crown Ridge neighborhood of roller coaster limestone cliffs, Smitty and Ken joined the Rainbow Garden Club of San Antonio where "It's trowel and error." Members of the club (it's not associated with Rainbow Nursery) helped them retool their already impressive gardening skills to fit the rocky landscape. Becoming "Master Gardeners," they transformed their yard into a native, water-saving floral curiosity that brought dirty looks from their "St. Augustine grass forever" HOA board and cheers from their admiring neighbors.

One of their admirers was Barbara Williams, president of SAGHS in 2015. She took Smitty to meet our indomitable Helen Parker, our first gardener-groundskeeper, building manager, and one of our visionaries. It wasn't long before Smitty became her gardening consultant and assistant, and her grounds replacement.

Late afternoon gardening led Smitty to other encounters. Wednesday evening librarians appreciated Smitty's assistance as he walked with them to their cars; long-time member Barbara Dehle convinced Smitty in 2016 to join SAGHS. He joined, became the Wednesday evening librarian and dug into genealogical research.

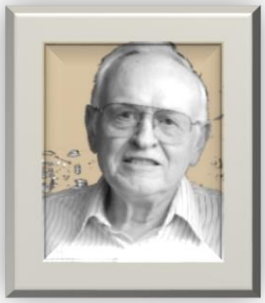

And how did Smitty get his name: Sir Oliver Smith? Born underweight—four pounds—and premature, his father, Floyd Oliver Smith, thought of the song "Little Sir Echo, How do you do? Little Sir Echo, Yoo Hoo, Yoo Hoo." He provided the name for the birth certificate. Later it was shortened to Smitty.

Thank you, Smitty, for your humble service and glorious landscape.

Directors-At-Large Nominees 2024-2026

At the April Membership Meeting, we will be voting for three (3) Directors-at-Large positions. The following members have agreed to be placed on the slate of nominees, and below is their brief biography to acquaint others with their accomplishments. Voting on April 20th will be by paper ballot, members need to be present at the meeting to vote.

Scott Atkinson

Scott, a native Texan, is a retired engineer-manager, with degrees in physics from Texas A&I Kingsville, an MBA from Pepperdine, with additional education courses from the U. S. Air Force, Harvard, St. Mary's, and UTSA. He is a SAGHS contributing member since mid-1990s. Using his technical background, he coordinates monthly workshops along with personal one-on-one consultations about how to use computer genealogy programs that include Family Tree Maker, Roots Magic, Ancestry, Find-a-Grave and now, the leading edge WikiTree online platform.

He has served as a director for the Institute of Electrical & Electronics Engineers (IEEE), the World's largest technical and professional association that included providing a 10 day Technical Tour of Texas, as Executive Chair of two major conferences (2001 in San Antonio & 2014 in Austin) and on the governing board for the IEEE Communications Society. Additionally, he is a Director of the non-profit association "Texas A & I Alumni Association". He is a contributing member of the local Sons of the American Revolution chapter, and the Society of the Cincinnati, an exclusive genealogical based historical honor.

He is a retired Air Force Lt. Colonel, USAA technical engineer, Tenneco Inc. manager (engineer).

Researching his ancestors these many decades, he and Margaret have traveled extensively, to include genealogy research at the LDS library in SLC, Alan County Genealogical Library, Consultants Genealogy Library in London, the New England Genealogical Society Library and the Clayton in Houston among many others. He holds membership in the Texas State Historical Association and recently written a 20-page precise about his uncle, a WWII hero, that will be published in our upcoming WWII book.

Peter Baron

Is an avid historian and genealogist. He has memberships in numerous genealogical, historical, and lineage societies. He holds officer positions in many of these organizations. As a SAR Genealogical Assistant and chairman of Texas "Operation Ancestor Search" Peter has assisted hundreds of Wounded Soldiers to prove their family histories. Peter serves on the Medina County Historical Commission as State Historical Marker Chairman. He is an active lecturer on the American Revolution and the Colonial Period. Peter received his Eagle Scout in 1993. He earned a degree in biology from Texas A&M University. He has written two books on his family history and has an extensive library. Peter is currently a Paramedic Fire Lieutenant with the San Antonio Fire Department stationed on Platform 2.

Judy Castleberry

Judy Castleberry Ph.D. has been a member since 2010, with joining prompted by the need to document lineage for membership in DAR. She actively used the library over the next few years, eventually finding three Patriots. Many more are out there, but other commitments have interfered. Judy has been retired for 20 years from a career in education, serving last as Executive Director of Education Service Center, Region 20. She continues to work as a contractor for the Texas Education Agency, supporting troubled school districts and charter schools. In addition to DAR, where she serves as Recording Secretary, she is on the Board of the Tuesday Musical Club, and Chair of the Administrative Council at Colonial Hills United Methodist Church. And most important of all, she is the proud mother of two sons and "Mimi" to two grandsons.

David Katerndahl

After completing a B.S. degree in Honors Biology with distinction from the University of Illinois and an M.A. degree in Education from the Ohio State University, David Katerndahl received his M.D. degree from the University of Illinois School of Medicine. He joined the Department of Family and Community Medicine at the University of Texas Health Science Center at San Antonio in 1984 as its Director of Research and Education and retired as Professor Emeritus in 2021. Dr. Katerndahl has served on the Boards of Directors of the North American Primary Care Research Group (NAPCRG) and the Texas Academy of Family Physicians (TAFP) Foundation as well as the editorial boards of the Primary Care Companion for the Journal of Clinical Psychiatry and the Family Practice Research Journal, and as reviewer for numerous scientific journals. Although most of his 250+ medical publications have dealt with research on mental health, partner violence and health services, recent articles have included research on spirituality and the application of complexity science to the study of medicine. His book for directors of research in academic departments called Directing Research in Primary Care (Radcliffe) was accepted for inclusion to the Society of Teachers of Family Medicine booklist. He held the Dr. Mario E. Ramirez Distinguished Professorship and has received two Presidential Awards from NAPCRG and TAFP along with NAPCRG's Maurice Wood Award for lifetime achievement in primary care research. He has been a member for two years and has been studying genealogical methods and researching his family for over 12 years. In 2022, he published a book From Whence about his ancestors since 1800. He presented the workshop Health of Our Ancestors last Spring and gave the Membership Meeting presentation Heinous Or Heroine? The Rehabilitation Of Hanna in September 2023.

William Allen (Bill) Myers

He has been a member since 2003 and is a former third Vice-President of the group. Bill got serious about genealogy after retirement (2001) and has had two articles printed in Our Heritage, with a third submission out in the next issue. He has compiled and is proofing a 320-page "Descendants of David and Phalby Myers" book, which he hopes to have published before this summer. He has been the point-of-contact for the Dwyer Estate grant to SAGHS for the past five years and has served off-and-on with the Tuesday volunteer group.
In his civilian life, Bill was a city/regional planner in Stillwater, Oklahoma, and San Antonio, and retired, in 2001, after being Director of Environmental Planning for the Air Force Center for Environmental Excellence. In his military life, Bill retired from the Air Force Reserve as a Colonel, in 1990, after commanding several large engineering organizations.

Member Survey

To improve your membership experience, we will be conducting a survey of our members by telephone. The questions will be directed toward making membership in SAGHS more useful and we are open to any ideas you may have that will help achieve that goal. If you are one of the lucky ones to be contacted, we thank you in advance for taking our call and answering our questions. This should take no more than 5 minutes of your time. Thank you for helping to make SAGHS better.

President's Message

Well, we are still waiting for the permitting process to complete so construction can begin in earnest on the Guenther South Wing interior. Our contractor assures us that the city is nearing the final stage of approval, so more news when it happens.

Need to give a big THANK YOU to Kurt Kneeland for helping at the Canary Islanders Saturday meeting, setting up and maintaining the technology to keep them seeing and hearing their speaker and the presentation. Kurt made a special effort to be there stayed for the whole meeting.

Many thanks to Linda Monts for her extended service as Membership Chair and also to Ellen Cotton for stepping in to that important job!

We are always happy to see names signed up to bring delectable refreshments to enjoy after our Membership meetings, so when you do, please mark your calendars! Otherwise it will be just coffee and tea. Many thanks to those who do bring munchies, especially Smitty and his fruit tray!

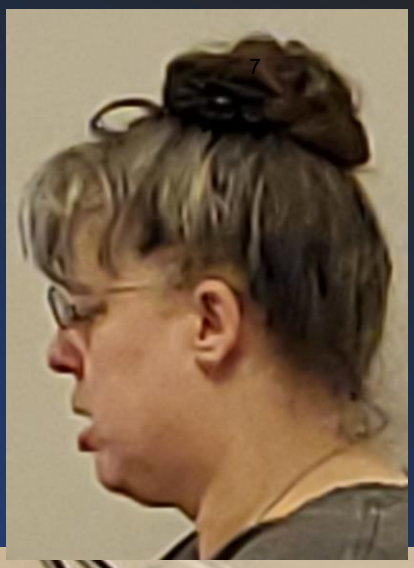

Many Thanks to Peter Baron for his excellent presentation on the Rev. War soldier!

UNDERSTANDING WIKITREE

By Scott Atkinson

Why do I use WikiTree? Let me list some objectives:

What IS WikiTree.com – an online genealogy program – free – funding from advertisements

WikiTree Pledge – an honor code – all submissions to be proven, researched, agree to work together, collaborate in friendship for mutual help

Profiles – individual information, photos, details of a life

Objective – one world tree, to capture profiles, their relationships

Privacy – all living, some special profiles are entirely private; others can have a varying degree of privacy, the election of submitter

Watchlist – user suppled list of surnames of interest, updated weekly

DNA associations – DNA is used to verify relationships

Sources – citations and other supporting documentation must prove family facts

The ultimate goal is to develop one Family Tree in order to show the relationships to each family member as well as their connections to others on the World Tree. Please consider attending my informal monthly 2nd Wednesday workshops, 10:00 to 12:00 in the Dwyer classroom. We work through issues/questions in FTM, RootsMagic, Ancestry.com as well. I'm available tscottatkinsongm@gmail.com and glad to help!

Cheers – Scott Atkinson

New Volunteer Opportunity

SAGHS is growing – our campus is indeed expanding and developing, becoming ever more useful and accommodating for our members and the community we serve.

We are now in need of your help please, especially from those of you who have property management backgrounds. We need a Building and Grounds Committee of dedicated volunteers to oversee the repair and upkeep of our buildings to include the equipment (i.e., air conditioning, fire extinguishers, lights, etc.) and furnishings. The Building and Grounds Committee will help us maintain our physical plant investments. A full description of the committee duties are listed in Section III, Item B of the SAGHS Standing Rules (see the 2023-24 Membership Yearbook or online in the Members Only Section at https://txsaghs.org).

We are not asking for volunteers to perform the actual maintenance and repairs; rather we need volunteers who are able to monitor our facilities to identify any physical needs, then to address and oversee the efforts of vendors/contractors who can perform the needed repairs or provide the needed acquisitions. Yes, that's the job description. Can you help? Please contact Barbara Froebel at president@txsaghs.org.

Book Collectors and Readers

WE NEED YOUR BOOKS

Announcing an additional attraction to our Annual Duplicate Genealogy Book Sale – we will also be selling a Potpourri of General Reading Books.

This latter offering is coordinated by Kitty Massey as an added fund raiser Please bring your home collection of dust collecting books to SAGHS for RESALE. You can drop them off at the library or Dwyer Center between now and May 10th. Come back during the sale dates to buy our Duplicate Genealogy Books or our super cheap Potpourri General Reading Books at our annual sale.

This year's date will be Tuesday, May 14th – Thursday, May 16th from 10 am – 4 pm in the Dwyer Classroom. On Saturday, May 11th after 12:00 pm, and if needed, Sunday afternoon and Monday, we seek volunteers to assist in organizing these collections by subject. It's a great way to enjoy fellowship with members of our society. We need lots of volunteers. If someone wishes to assist during the organization day(s) or during the sale days, please contact Nancy McNamara at Education@txsaghs.org.

Meanwhile, in March, the genealogy list of books for sale will be posted in the library. As a thank you to our volunteers, they may make their selections before they are offered to all of our members. The April the Newsletter will contain a list of the remaining genealogy books. They can be ordered by email at Education@txsaghs.org. There will not be a listing of the Potpourri books.

The money received from this 2-day tax free sale, plus the third taxed day sale, is added revenue to our General Fund. It's a great way to support SAGHS.

Volunteer Notes:

While the book sale reflects a few hours of your personal time, there are more volunteer roles, available with different time commitments. A recent example is Ellen Cotton volunteering to replace Linda Monts as Membership Chair. Other examples of open positions are: the Building and Grounds Committee coordinator and members, Research Registrar for off-campus research questions, and Librarian to oversee the Library and serves as a voting member of the SAGHS Board.

Our Heritage Submissions

The editorial staff of Our Heritage appreciates all of you who submitted articles for the spring issue of Our Heritage. We had such an overwhelming response that we were unable to fit all of them into the spring issue, and some will be carried in the fall issue instead. Thank you!

But—we still need your submissions for our fall issue! The deadline for submissions is June 30, 2024, to allow us plenty of time to make our publication deadlines. This is a firm deadline, and no submissions will be accepted after that date.

We previously announced the theme for the next issue as "Military Brats"—stories about those of you who grew up moving around in a military family, or who had friends or relatives who were a part of military families that moved often. We are expanding the theme to include migration for other reasons—whether temporary or permanent migrations, and for whatever reason. We are looking particularly for people who migrated to San Antonio and their reasons for doing so. This includes your ancestors' migrations from other parts of the country, or other parts of the world, to San Antonio.

So, please send us your stories on military or other migrations to San Antonio by June 30, 2024 to publications@txsaghs.org.

Research Tips
by
Barbara Hawkins Johns

Speaking as a volunteer librarian, I have seen and heard several research tips. First, I've learned, the Family History section of books in the Texas Room is a great place to look for those mysterious collateral women.

Second, you can create a Virtual Cemetery using Findagrave.com. When I learned how to create Virtual Cemeteries, it helped me organize my relatives into family groups by creating a file of their gravestones/memorials. I made a copy of the findagrave page for each of the Hawkins relatives, no matter where they were buried, into one Virtual Cemetery. I created Virtual Cemeteries for my collateral lines, too. Currently, I have 46 Virtual Cemeteries. This exercise was an enormous help organizing all my relatives in my mind's eye. I printed all the pages and organized them in binders. This is what I will pass on to the next generation.

Steps to Creating a Virtual Cemetery on findagrave.com

1. Create a findagrave account. It is free.
2. Search the database for a relative. If you do not know the cemetery, give the town and state or just the state. If you don't know the death date, guess and give it a plus or minus 5 to 10 years. Sometimes you have to eliminate the first name because it may be listed by initials, strange spelling, etc. The website looks for matches to the exact information entered.
3. At the person's memorial page click on "SAVE TO" under the Memorial ID. A window will appear at the top of the page. Select "Virtual Cemetery."
4. Select the box "Create a Virtual Cemetery." A box will appear to name your cemetery.
5. Click on "Edit." A window will appear with your named Virtual Cemetery. In the lower box, describe who will be in this cemetery. You can always change this later. Click on "Public" or "Private" for Cemetery Visibility. All of mine are public. Click "Save." Your person should appear in your cemetery.

This is an example of placing two gravestones of relatives on a Virtual Cemetery page.

Another tip is to contact genealogy societies in counties where your relatives lived. A number of years ago I had the good fortune to visit the Cornerstone Genealogy Society in Greene County, Pennsylvania. My maternal grandmother's parents took the train from there to Ulysses, Nebraska, to farm. From there they migrated to Oklahoma, then Texas. With the society's help and documents, I was able to provide verification for my DAR application. I am still a member. They have helped me with several searches. I also belong to the Northeast Alabama Genealogical Society. We visited there, too. I belong to the Indiana and Pennsylvania state societies, as well. I have a South Carolina brick wall, so I am going to join the Union County Genealogical Society.

Please feel free to come to the library and I will show you my tips.

Happy Easter: March 31

Need help with your research?

During the hours our Library is open, a volunteer "Duty Librarian" is available to assist our patrons. Our volunteers have a wide range of expertise and specialities.

World War II Stories Needed

As previously mentioned, Larry Luckett will be compiling a new SAGHS book:

WWII Memories.

Articles previously published in Our Heritage will be considered for re-publication in this book. We hope our members will submit additional stories to be included. Submit your article to Larry Luckett at publications@txsaghs.org and include as the subject of your email something similar to "WWII – your ancestor's name."

Articles must be submitted to publications@txsaghs.org by March 15, 2024 to be included.
